MEMORANDUM FOR: Coordinator for Academic Relations, NFAC

SUBJECT : Request to Speak before a Class at George Washington University ☐

STAT

1. I request approval to speak before a graduate class on Soviet Military Policy and Strategy (Political Science 269) at the Sino-Soviet Institute of George Washington University on 23 October 1980. I was invited to appear before the class by Professor Charles Elliot, a personal friend. I spoke before this class in December 1977 and December 1979. The reception was very favorable in both cases. ☐

STAT

2. The topic for the class is interpretations of the Soviet approach to SALT and MBFR. I will speak informally for about 30 minutes and then have 30-60 minutes of discussion. My presentation and the discussion will focus on the unclassified journal articles that will be assigned for class reading. I will not discuss any classified information. ☐
